“ Marilyn, I am thankful I was able to visit with you recently and make you laugh, boy how we loved to laugh! Your smile and your laughter will always be my memory of you. And your impeccable taste! You made every event much more memorable with all your special touches. More means more. Thank you for that! Thank you for allowing me to stay over your house when I was a teenager for countless sleep overs with Krissie, when we were supposed to be quiet (but blew it every time). Thank you for your love and kindness towards animals. Thank you for our conversations at Avery Dennison, when everyone else had left for the day and it was just you and I. I will always cherish them. While it is sad to say goodbye, it brings me comfort knowing you are at peace and pain free, with Rufus on your lap smiling and laughing. Whenever I hear a Moody Blues song, I will always think of you. Thank you for being a part of my life these past 32 years. I love you. Rest in Peace, my friend.

“ Mama...there are no words to express the sadness in my heart to know you are no longer with us. Beautiful, funny, caring, hard working, fiesty, loving...I could go on for days but honestly you were one of a kind. I have so many good memories of you to fill my mind with but my heart has a tremendous hole in it. I know over time it will heal. My only solace is knowing that you can breathe without worry, you now have those Sandals on you wanted & as far as the bra issues...the girls are probably right where they are supposed to be now. Lol! I know your laughing too about that! But most of all...I know you also have your beloved Rufus right by your side. Rest easy Mama. I love and miss you with every bit of my being. This is not good-bye...this is farewell until we meet again. R.I.P.

“ To my second mom, I love and will miss you so much. I have 35 plus years of memories with you. To name a few, when we would get ready to go somewhere, Krissie and I would have to wait hours for you to get ready, your hair always had to be perfect before leaving the house (lol), the time a stray dog followed Krissie and I and we called you and you came rushing up to rescue it, when Krissie was grounded (which was alot, lol) and I was the only one a loud over, all the times we went shopping at Aurora Farms, and drove around looking at Christmas lights and all the cakes you would bake for no reason but to just have in the house. I have so many more memories, but want to keep to myself to cherish for the rest of my life. I know you are happy and healthy and in no pain as well as Rufus. Tell Rufus we love and miss him too. Just know that I will always be here and look out for Krissie. She will never be alone. I'm always here for her and I sure she knows it. She is my sister forever and always. I love you mom and give them hell up there i know you will. We will see each again. Love you to the moon and back.
