“ Thinking about Marissa, so young, so beautiful, how hard it must have been for her to deal with difficulties that no one her age should have known about. Sleep well, mom & dad, your little girl is safe now, free to do all the things she could not do here. She is still with you, although not in the form you knew, she will be looking after you as you did for her. My prayers are with you, Nora

“ Fearless and full of energy ~ you colored our world. Your faith, persistence and endurance has taught us well. You were essential to our lives, perhaps more than any of ours to yours. So many years you filled our lives with joy ~ in spite of your struggles. If we couldn't find you happy at home with Grandma Edna, Mom or Dad; chances are you were Shopping and Be-Bopping with Aunty Lara or busy walking Uncle Johnny's back. Maybe you were jetting off to Texas with or vacationing somewhere with Daddy's family! Wherever you were, you were lighting up the room with your love or keeping us on our toes; standing on the edge, somewhere! Like a rock, a foundation -You were the glue that held people together. You entertained us with your practical joking. Your ability to problem solve with logic, from a very young age was incredible. Your love was unconditional. You protected each of us in a way that only you could. Your will - to be commended. Blessed are we, to have been loved by you! For us, God kept you safe so long and now Graciously called you home. Your time with us is over and a New Life, just begun. As you dine at The Table for your 21st Birthday Feast ~ Mangia!! God Speed Rissa;

With a sweet sorrow, we say Good bye for now, until we meet again! It has been an honor to know as one of my own, for exactly 20 years and to: at the end of your journey meet Dad's family was truly a gift for me and the girls. They are everything you always said they were! Thank you Pretty Girl for loving us, and letting us love you!! Your memory is tattooed upon our hearts. I know that if we're looking, exactly where we'll find you ~ somewhere, over the rainbow!

Our deepest sympathy is with ALL of the Sikora's; the Marciano's families!

The song is ended, but the melody lingers on ~ Irving Berlin

“ Marissa’s Family & Close Friends:
My deepest sorrow cannot even begin to comprehend your loss. Just know you are in my thoughts and prayers every night before I close my eyes.

Matthew 18: 1-4

At that time the disciples came to Jesus, saying, “Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?” And calling to him a child, he put her in the midst of them and said, “Truly, I say to you, unless you turn and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. Whoever humbles himself like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.”

Thank you for the light you shared with my family, Marissa. And for the laughter and joy you brought to our world.

“ You will be missed dearly my friend by all who knew you. You a woman of strength to be admired. Your bright light and courage blessed everyone you came in contact with. Your life represents beauty beyond what I have seen in this lifetime. You fight no more and rest in perfect peace child. My deepest sympathy to Marissa's incredible families. All of you are in my thoughts and prayers.
