“ Mary Ann and Mark and Jordan and Katie, our deepest sympathies to all of you. May your mom and grandma Rest In Peace. How fitting that she would see God as He was preparing to take her home on Easter Wednesday, on the day she died. I am sure St Agnes was there since it was her feast day and St Bernadette and Our Lady of Lourdes too. May your mom and dad rest together now, together, peacefully, with Jesus and the Communion of Saints. May their Souls and all the Souls of the Faithful departed Rest In Peace in Perpetual Light shining upon them.

“ We were blessed to have grown up at a time and in a neighborhood where Mom's were part of everyone's extended family, and Mom Armelli was one of the best. She treated us like we were her own kids, including scolding when we needed it, but also providing a kind ear and advice when we asked for it. Her smile and laugh are among my fondest memories of her. I'm very sorry for our collective loss, but feel blessed that we were part of her life and she ours. God be with all of you.
