“ I was so saddened to hear this news. Maryann was my neighbor down the way. I loved her spunk and humor. She always had me laughing. Every time she saw my little boy (us) walk past her house, she'd be there running out candy treats to him. She was so kind and so kind to my children. Rest easy, Maryann. Kirsty

“ Aunt MaryAnne,
I have many fond memories of the holidays
we spent together during my formative years.
You went out of your way to make me feel welcome and part of your family. You truly had a gift for making people feel special and seen. Although you're no longer with us physically, your spirit lives on through all of us you touched while you were here.

“ Aunt Maryann,

You teated everyone you knew like their second mom and always thought about them. Our entire family is devastated you are no longer going to be just a call away. We will miss all the fun we had together. Ella and Levi will cherish forever just a week ago where we went to Chuck E Cheese and had a blast taking all those Photo Booth pictures together. We will miss you. Take care of my dad in heaven.
