at University Hospitals of Cleveland
Born on 6/5/1964 in Willoughby OH

City of Residence: Burton

Funeral Mass: Thursday, May 9, 2013, 10 AM,
St. Mary Magdalene

Matthew Kaschalk was a hard working guy, but also knew how to have fun. He enjoyed country living, watching the weather and the stars, fishing, bonfires, sports, gardening and caring for his animals, especially his Australian cattle dog, Oxford, that he had for many years. He was a son, father, grandfather, husband, brother, cousin, uncle that will be sadly missed, but hopefully remembered with a smile.

“ We wanted to come to the service for Matt but time got away from us. I recently checked the obituaries and found that we had missed the services. We wanted to be there too - to support the living.

So sorry for your loss. He was just too young.

“ Trisha,Dale and Family, I've had the pleasure of knowing and working with Matt since 2006. He had a passion and love for his work, his fellow workers, and the friends he made every day in the store. He is a good man, a good friend, and he will be sorely missed by all. God Bless You. Don't let go of all the wonderful memories.

“ My dear Matthew,
Although we've had such a short marriage together, you left me with some wonderful warm memories. You took care of me and my boys well and made me feel loved each day.
You made a huge impact on those around you. It's unbelievable how many friends, co-workers and family have reached out to us. You were so loved. I promise to keep your memory alive and one day we will meet again.

“ I remember the first time as an adult hanging out with Matt @ his home before the 2000 KASCHALK reunion, he had a party themed Christmas in July. As the night grew on, the alcohol seemed to taste more like water, stories got crazier, the laughter got louder & then the shotguns came out... to say the least it was one hell of a night I'll always remember! It was an instant bond between long distance cousins that felt more like best friends who had finally met so close to home.

I will miss you greatly Matt, you will always remain in my memories & in my heart. Live your new life like you've never left here among us. Say hi to the original granny Kaschalk & Darrell for me. Someday we'll meet again, until then, good bye for now...

Love,

-Travis Kaschalk

“ Matt,

Memories of you and I will never escape me. They were great and priceless. I remember the pond you brought me to at your buddies house. We stayed up past dark catching bass, well mostly you caught them, I was getting laughed at by the fish, but was still a good time. I also remember when you and I drove for 2 hours to go gambling, 30min there and you had almost lost all of your money and were ready to go back home! I talked you into playing a slot machine area that I had a couple hits on. By some great luck, Cu-Ching! You hit a jackpot over $600! The lunch on the top floor restaurant was awesome, thanks. Trisha was super happy about that win, and the gift you got her. I think you spent it faster than you won it.

Wishing we could continue to make more memories together. You are my family, cousin, friend, and loved one. I will never forget you, and miss you so much. I will always have a special place for you in my heart.
