“Maureen you were the most gentle, kind, caring person I have ever met. When I felt like giving up you encouraged me and fought along side of me. You reminded me of gods love and that I could fight any battle with him along side me. No matter how busy you were you made time to see that I was okay and you helped save my life which i am forever grateful for. I called you my angel and i am soo glad god allowed me to meet you and be his angel for me in my time of need and afterwards. Although i am soo hurt and sad now I know god needed you his most beautiful angel home with him. I love you soo much and i know one day ill see you again.

“My Dearest Chica
I will cherish our friendship forever. We prayed together, we worshiped together, we laughed, we cried, we shared and we prayed some more. Thank You for showing me how to love in spite of difficult times, your legacy will live on and on.
We had plans for our trip to Florida but God had plans for your final trip to be with Him for eternity.
Continue to watch over Len and your children and grandchildren.
I will miss you terribly- until we meet again Rest In Peace my friend.
