“ To the Lewis family, we are so very sorry for your loss. Mike is a good man, would do anything for anyone and has been the best neighbor we could hope to have. Mike and I relied on each other to care for our properties and (mostly) had fun doing it. Mikey, I wish we had more time with you but I'm grateful you didn't suffer my friend. Now you can have the rest and peace you earned and deserve. The neighborhood will be lonely without my "hillbilly" buddy, you will be greatly missed. Thank you for your kindness, for being my second dad when I lost mind, for looking out for Angie while I was not home, for our conversations without judgement, most of all, for your friendship. We love you Mikey, see you later buddy.

“ You’re the reason why I’m who I am today. I just bought you a new tractor 🚜 for Christmas and your first pair of UGGS too 🎄 you butthole! Being the father I always needed makes it all worthwhile. I would’ve bought you 10 tractors if that’s what it took for you to know how appreciated you really are. I dedicate my YouTube award to you. As if it weren’t for you, I clearly wouldn’t be the me I am today. Thank you 🙏 pops. You rest easy knowing I will take exceptionally good care of my momma.
