“ This is so late. I was her hostbrother Stephan from Germany. We only spent one year together and after another year lost contact. It was the 80s, there was no web. I loved her very much, I laughed so much with her during 86/87. Our talks and our closeness meant so much to me. I tried to find my old family from that year several times but never succeeded. I am sad and shocked to learn that we will never meet again in this life. I sincerely hope that she lead a happy life. Julie, Mikey, I am so sorry for your loss. I hope you are ok. I dare not ask about Lori?

“ Meshelle, My Big Sissy I will miss you deeply. You taught me as a little brother so much about life, love and happiness. You told me to always follow my heart and I have. You had so much good to give and you never judged a book by its cover. Your heart was huge as the ocean, wide open, giving and loving. You loved the world around you and everyone in it without fault, judgement or blame. Your smile was contagious and your sense of humor second to none. You had nicknames for everyone and we spent countless hours together over the years laughing , loving and living. I knew through it all you always had my back, always. I love you Sissy and I know that one day I will see you again in the Heavens. In the last few years we haven't had the constant contact that I now wish we would have, and for that I am sorry from the bottom of my heart and soul. I love you more than any words I could muster could ever describe. You are my Big Sis and will always be. In the end I know that you will be watching over all of us here on Earth ever smiling and guiding our way. My heart aches at your passing. My soul hurts at the thought of your voice being forever gone from my ears. But I will take solace in knowing that you will forever be by our sides. Until we meet again my Beautiful Sister, I love You, Your Little Bro, Mikey
