“ Cynthia and family; I spoke with my mom today and she told me about your mom. I am so sorry. I understand she was an excellent travelling partner and know you were so close. My sincerest sympathy to you and your family; we have many happy memories of picnics and family times shared together.

“ I found Beth's address today in an old address book. My mother had given me a bunch of her friend's addresses a long time ago. I was wondering how Beth was and googled her name to see if she was at the same address and found this obituary. She was always one of my favorites of my mom's friends and I've missed seeing her since my mom's death. I wish I had found her address sooner. I have such fond memories of her.
