“ What can I say about Nada, or as I grew up calling her “Mrs.Manieri! She was like a 2nd mom to me, she put up with our endless sleepovers, driving us to movies, driving us to skating parties etc! She was one hell of a lady and one FANTASTIC mother!! She raised her kids to all be respectful, kind and my gosh were they all so smart!! She made the best chip dip ever and when I found out (in my late 30s) that it was just 2 ingredients I was excited! Now when I eat my chips and dip I’ll always think of her!! To the Manieri family it was a amazing to know and love your mom since I was 6 years old! You all are so lucky to have had a mom like Nada! ❤️

“ I first met Nada when our oldest was at Orchard Hollow and I would drive to the bus stop in the afternoon to pick him up. She would be there waiting for G to walk her across Lake Shore. I remember saying hello to her and noticed her accent. We talked about Slovenian traditions. I loved hearing her talk, she reminded me of my Teta. Always had a smile on her face. Praying for you all to have peace in your heart, knowing she will always be someone I am happy to have known. Dana

“ A true follower of Christ, Nada was always eager to help others in need while making light of her own needs. Battling cancer herself, Nada would arrive at weekday Mass and invariably ask me how my wife was doing with her cancer, promising to keep praying for my wife and me without mentioning her own trials. But when asked about her cancer battle, Nada would simply shrug, smile, and then emphasize various positives before racing off for her next commitment. No time for self-pity parties. Nada was always busy serving others and maximizing the life she still had. Thank You, Lord, for the gift of Nada's holy witness in our community, our parish, and our personal encounters. Based on our encounters with her adult children, Nada (and her husband Bill) also left a wonderful legacy of loving people to carry on hereafter. God Bless you, Nada, for still giving even after you are gone. Love, Greg and Annie

I didn't know Nada well. Once I prayed all of the mysteries of the Rosary with he in the Chapel.. It felt like I was sitting next to an angel and warrior of our Lord. Only last May, we worked together at the Saint Mary Magdalene festival selling raffle tickets in the tent on Vine street. Each of us shared many things in our lives, our family, our travels,, and even some of our favorite recipes. She was so loving and kind. When I would see her walking I would toot my horn. She would raise her head from her prayers and wave and smile at me--I'll miss that. Recently she asked me to bring up the gifts with her during weekday Mass. I cherish our time together. I am deeply sorry for your loss. Only a few short weeks ago Nada asked me to pray for her. And pray I did. Now I will pray that you are all comforted in your sorrow.
