Nancy Negrelli Fazio, age 89, of Newbury, passed away peacefully on April 2, 2023. She was born in Cleveland on December 24, 1933 to the late Tom and Lilly Olivo.

Nancy will be remembered most for her generosity, strength, friendship, and love of all things Italian. She loved to travel, especially to Italy. In addition, Nancy enjoyed spending her time golfing, playing cards, and her many trips to the casino. Most of all, Nancy's greatest joy in life was being a mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, and loved nothing more than spending her time with her family. She will be deeply missed by her family and friends, and her memory will live on in their hearts forever.

She is survived by her daughter Jean Negrelli, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and many friends.

She was preceded in death by her adoring sons Carmen and Joel Negrelli; her brothers; and her husband, Mario Fazio.

“ Dear Nancy was the Princess of the Gennaro Olivo grandchildren. She was the only girl with brothers Jerry and Dominic, and cousins Jimmy, Neil, Frank, Joe, Pasquale, Julian, and Bill. It wasn't until 10 years later cousin Rosemarie joined her.

Nancy could keep up with the men and the story is told of her making it to the top of the greased pole at the Mt Carmel feast to retrieve the salami at the top.

In the mid 1950's , she moved to the third floor of Grandpa Gennaro's house, when my family was on the first floor. I was around 10 years old and spent a lot of time hanging around her kitchen, especially when I smelled something good cooking. One day while waiting for a pizza to come out of her oven, smoke came billowing out of the lower drawer when towels caught fire ! Pizza was still delicious .

Nancy used to have me look after Carmen and Joel when she went out. Carmen was easy, but Joel was a handful. ! liked it because I was able to stay up late and watch the late tv shows. We shared Nancy's pain in their loss. It was obvious Nancy passed her work ethic on from her parents to her children and she can be proud of them.

I loved listening to Nancy's soft voice as she would often relate family facts and stories of which her younger cousins were not aware . It won't be too long and she will be able to tell us more .
Love, you, Nancy.
