

Norman J. Stih

November 3, 1942 - August 30, 2018

Norman J. Stih, age 75, of Willowick formerly of Euclid, passed away peacefully at the Holy Family Health Care & Hospice. He is preceded in death by his father, John F. Stih, mother, Mildred M. Stih and his late wife Kathleen Stih (nee Krucke). Loving father of daughter, Cindy Weber and grandfather of Myranda Weber and Jayden Harsh. Loving brother of John J. Stih (Judith) and James E. Stih (Joyce). Norm was an outstanding basketball player at St. Joe's (now VASJ) because of his rebound ability, he acquired the nickname, "Sweeper." He played college ball at Gannon University in Erie, PA. He enjoyed watching all the Cleveland Sports teams and he could often be found playing the slots at various casinos with his wife. He will be deeply missed by his family and friends. Visitation will be on Monday, September 3, 2018 from 3 to 7pm at the Monreal Funeral Home, 35400 Curtis Blvd., Eastlake. A Funeral Service will follow at 7pm. In lieu of flowers, donations in his name may be made to the Holy Family Health Care & Hospice.

“ The good times we had in pymatuming. The work parties and drink fests. Waking up in the morning finding Norm asleep on the picnic table or should I say passed out. Lots of fun back then. Peace to you Norm. 🙏
