“ Jim, Cindy & Sharon: I was so blessed to have grown up with your mom & dad in my life. So many wonderful celebrations of life shared together.. weddings, holidays, baptisms. They both had so much joy & beauty. I will always remember & cherish your mom's laugh - the chuckle - & her beautiful smile.

“ My mom and Mrs Tomsick were thick like thieves. Their husbands played in the Art Perko orchestra and all us kids were extended family. Many memories were made together at the various public gigs. My mom and Mrs Tomsick played golf together, vacationed together, rooted on their beloved boys of summer; the Cleveland Indians going to games at the Jake, and then hit the gym together in their later years. Friends, neighbors, and sisters in a way, they had a life long friendship that spanned decades and now they are all reunited on the other side. May the wonderful memories of a life well lived sustain us all. God Bless!
