“ Rest in peace Ragu knowing how much you were loved and cared for by your son, Nick and daughter in law, Dominique. How you touched their lives and will never leave their hearts. I'm sorry I only got to meet you once, but have heard my niece, Dominique, talk about you often with great love, admiration and affection. Having you spend these past many months with them was a labor of love to them and you meant the world to them and will be sorely missed.

“ Dear Ragu

We did not know you for a life time, but you made our lifetime better for having known you. We will miss you greatly, and promise to think of you often.
