“ PJ will always be the “Dude” to me. We had a lot of adventures growing up and there isn’t many memories I have as a kid that doesn’t include the Dude. As we grew older and life took us in different directions he settled into being a husband, father and grandfather. His parents and family were special to all his friends. Mr. Lasko taught to play baseball, not just to play the game, but how you should dress, act and even how to cut your hair. One of our greatest achievements was winning the Knights of Columbus City Championship, especially since Mr. Lasko was Grand Knight. South High School was another adventure. The Dude was the only person that the French teacher let (or made) sleep through class to allow him to pass. Dude was one of my Groomsmen in our wedding. The more I sit here and write the more great memories come flooding back and while I cry, I’m laughing. Dude, there is a place for you in heaven and I will continue to pray that God remembers all the good you have done. Rest In Peace.

“ Reconnecting with my cousin after four decades was awesome. His friendship and love never diminished over those years. The last four years of visits (and ballgames), and the memories generated will reside with me forever. Unpretentious and real. A man to emulate and easy to love. Mike Kalman

“ His spirit and attitude during his tough time was inspiring as I have family going through the same situation. Definitely an inspiration during his fight. Reminds all of us that this life is so short and family is so very important. Prayers to the family during this difficult time. Rest in peace my friend. Heaven gained a good one...
