

Randy Allen Zur

March 12, 1961 - May 24, 2014

Randall A. Zur, 53, passed away May 24th at Ames Hospice House of the Western Reserve. Randy was born in March of 1961 in Cleveland, Ohio and lived in Willoughby Hills and Wickliffe his entire life.

Randy was the beloved husband of Gina nee Walko for 30 years; son of Jean nee Witter and John Zur, Jr., brother of Kim Davidson Jack, nephew of Barbara and Peter Miller, and brother-in-law of Albert Walko, Jr.

He was an avid bowler and a member of the Professional Bowlers Association and enjoyed league bowling with 30 plus 300 games to his credit. He enjoyed building model cars, horse racing and Nascar. One of his most favorite pastimes was playing in the yard with his dogs, Jake and Mackey.

Calling hours are 4:00pm to 8:00pm on Thursday the 29th of May at the Monreal Funeral Home.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations to the Hospice of the Western Reserve.

Tribute Wall

SA

“ Randy was a great bowler and friend - he was funny and loved sports especially indians and browns and I don't know why lol - he loved gina his wife and his dogs and even his brother in law al again lol - I will miss him greatly - even tho I only new him personally for the past three years - but he never complain about his personal battles against cancer and he fought like no body I know in my I entire life - going through treatments and actually made jokes about the doctors could not belief he was still alive after all the treatment he went through he was one in a million making as far as he did - I do not know how he would go through treatments and bowl the next day what an inspiration to me - he never gave up his friend Sam

Sam - October 12, 2016 at 12:00 AM