I worked at Lubrizol during the 60's. I was in the Sales Dept. whose "office" was moved from pillar to post & one of the offices we were given was one on the first floor at the northeast end of the Chemical Research Building. Now you knew your brother we referred to him as John Wayne. We were invading his turf & he didn't think very highly of me a 19-year-old female. I was just "struttin my stuff" & not good for much.

Well, one day when he wandered into the office, I told him he should judge me by my actions rather than his preconceived notions.

He changed after that & really sort of "took me under his wing". We were both Methodists. I was practically "born" in the Willoughby church as my mother was the organist there for 65 years.

He even stopped to see me when I worked at the Willoughby Municipal Court. If memory serves me right, Arlene was speaking at a WUMC Women's lunch next to the Court & he was probably bored.

Anyway, he was an imposing presence in this world and a dear, dear friend. I don't know when he died but I'm sorry I missed the opportunity to remember him with you & his children. I will be flying to the Florida Keys Saturday morning; therefore will not be able to reminisce sp? with you. May God be with all your family during this "reflective" time & the death of your nephew.

“ What moves through you is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch, you may never understand why he left this earth so soon, or why he left before you were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, you will begin to remember not just that he died, but that he lived and that his life gave you memories too beautiful to forget
With much love

“ Our death is not an end if we can live on in our children and the younger Generation. For they are us, our bodies are only wilted leaves on the tree of life.

The passing of one means little, what one passes on means everything. Our children are our best memorial.

“ Dear Monica and Danny,
We are so very sorry to hear about the loss of your father. He was such a great neighbor and became a dear friend. He had such a kind heart. We enjoyed when he came across the yard to spend time with us. We will always remember him and the time we shared with your family as neighbors.

My heart aches for you. Know that your Dad's love will be with you forever. No one can ever take it away from you. It will live on in your heart- there for you to embrace and remember any time or day you need it most. He was the greatest brother to me....I will always feel like the luckiest sister in the world.

“ *Monica and Danny,
Parents give all they have to give to their children. Then they let them spread their wings and fly. This was your dad's final act of giving. He has set you free.
Fly! Your dad will be so proud.
We love you,
Jill, Dean, Jalen and Ella*

“ Dearest Monica and Dan,
We hope you find comfort in these words from an old childhood “friend”, Winnie the Pooh.
“If ever there is tomorrow when we’re not together...there is something you must always remember. You are braver than you believe, stronger than you seem and smarter than you think. But the most important thing is, even if we’re apart....I’ll always be with you.”
Our heartfelt sympathy to you both.
With love,
Aunt Joy and Uncle Tom
