“ I am so very sorry for the loss of this man who meant so much to his family and friends.

I first met him when I was a teenager on a trip through Europe with my family in 1971 I became fast friends with his step-daughter JoyceJoy to meand have been "keeping in touch" ever since. On one visit to Ohio he offered me the thrill of a lifetime by paying for a glider ride for me at an airshow. I will never forget that day or him.
