“ To the Tavenier children -- Dick-Dennis & Debra Our memories of your father go back to our days on Morris avenue -- We were neighbors for approximately ten years -- Both Donna and I had the greatest respect for you father -- he served his country as a Marine and his community as a police officer. We share in your loss.

“ To the Tavenier family: There are no words that can explain the loss of a loved one. Dick served proudly in a bloody war and came home safely. He and his wife raised a family and he worked hard at his job to provide for his family, a quality that is hard to find in todays world. He retired with pride from law enforcement and enjoyed retirement. He was very fortunate to have a caring and loving daughter Debra and son-in-law Jim Petkovic holding his hand as he entered into eternal life. We should all be so fortunate. To my Brother Marine I salute you. SEMPER FI MY BROTHER, SEMPER FI!!!!!!!
