“ We'll never forget going to Sea World and watching your Dad play before the Shamu show. After the show he took us backstage to see all the whales. Briana was just a baby, what a thrill !
Your Dad & Mom were always so sweet & welcoming every time we came over. We sat up late many a night talking with him. Sending prayers to Danny & Patty. God Bless - Jeff & Laura Nalepka

So sorry to hear this. I truly enjoyed shopping for your dad over the past 15 months. He was a pleasure to sit and chat with...I will miss hearing all his stories. He had a full life. Again, I am sorry and will miss him. Hugs to the family. Rae Lynne Walsh, lake county council on aging volunteer shopper.

My father, Bert Smith, thought the world of your dad. They played together for pretty much their whole musical careers dating back to the Eagle Jazz Band days. Dad was so proud to work with him throughout the years. He talked about him and played his music all the time. It warms my heart to think they are now able to "get the band back together." Deepest condolences from my mother, sister and me in your loss.

I took guitar lessons from him at Motters when I was in high school. I lived every minute of it, especially when we played duets. Saw him at Sea World once later on with my kids. So sorry for your loss. Great guy!!!
