

Robert (Bobby) J. Crow

April 16, 1958 - February 16, 2022

"Robert (Bobby) J. Crow- my husband of over 30 years, my best friend, the love of my life- departed this life peacefully on February 16, 2022 at 63 years old.

Cherished Husband of Karyn (nee Herrera). Devoted Father of Gregory Tomasic (Nikki) and Marisa Zakaria (Dan). Best Pops of Owen, Vincent, Francesca, Liliana, and Lincoln. Dear Brother of Linda Santosuosso (John, deceased) and Richard (Michele). Favorite Uncle and Great Friend to many. Beloved Son of Robert L. and Rose M. Crow. Proud Collinwood native.

Bobby fought cancer like how he played that high school football game on a compound-fractured arm- with courage and strength. He taught us how to love deeply, to live fully, and to be street smart and fearless. Bobby made the best ribs at Bobby's Place and enjoyed traveling to Vegas and Mountaineer. He loved his family and dogs, betting horses, football, camping at Holiday Camplands, going to his grandkids sporting events, and singing Harold Melvin and the Blue Notes songs at the top of his lungs, with his wife as his backup dancer.

May the Lord Bless & Keep him until we meet again. As he would say, it's not Goodbye, it's "Later!". Later, Pops.

A visitation will be on Saturday, March 5, 2022 from 12 to 3pm at Monreal Funeral Home, 35400 Curtis Blvd, Eastlake, OH 44095. A memorail service will be held at 3pm also at the funeral home"

“ Have many good party memories with Bobby at Bobby's Place as well as memories of friendship. When we moved to Painesville Township, Bobby and Karyn lived in Perry on Webb. They opened their doors to us during the 4 day power outage November 1996. Marisa became our babysitter....time changed and ours lives adjusted. RIP Bobby, we know you are not alone. See you Later!
