“ Dear Lee and family,
Our thoughts and Prayers are with you in this time of great loss. The class of 1960 will miss Bob at the reunions, but God has a new Angel to keep him company.
May God bless and comfort you.

“ Dear Lee and family,

My deepest sympathy to you all. Bob sat in front of me all through high school. He never missed a chance to tell me he loved teasing me in and out of class. We shared two study halls for four years as well as classes. He was the first person I saw in the morning and the last in the afternoon. He will be missed and my prayer is that his spirit will endure and you find comfort from knowing so many of his classmates will miss his smile at our reunions.

God bless you all and I will remember Bob forever as the gentle soul he was.
