“ Auntie Jane, Bob, Doug, David,

I am deeply saddened. Uncle Bob was my tower of strength this past year. I was lucky to have him through the rough times.

I am also sad that I cannot be there. Please know I am thinking of you all. Dad and I will visit Uncle Bob when I return to Erie.

Circumstances will only allow him to make it to the viewing, I know he is unhappy about it but he can only do what his body allows him now.

All my love to you all.

“ My deepest sympathies to all, and regrets that I am unable to be there.

Uncle Bob was his own person. I loved his humor, and over the years, came to appreciate his wisdom and matter-of-fact perspective.

I loved visiting him at the rail road, and my memories of spending summers in Cleveland with Auntie Jane, Uncle Bob and the cousins are some of my fondest.

My heart is heavy for all, but trust that he is in a new, and beautiful world.
