“ Dear Dorothy, Donna, John and Scott,
I am deeply saddened for your loss. Alzheimer's disease truly robbed all of you of a gentle man, a kind Dad, a good friend to all who knew him throughout his life. I knew him as a "brother" since I was very young. His kindness to me, Hank, Dave and Jeff will always be remembered and appreciated, and especially the kindness and warm hospitality that he showed to our Mom those many days she lived in your home. He was a good man. I will miss seeing him and watching his gentle ways with the animals that he loved so dearly, and his happy smile the last time that he saw Max. Thanks for the memories, dear brother Bob. Give Bobby a hug for me.

“ Dear family,

My wife and I are very sorry to hear of your tremendous loss and would like to send our condolences to the family. We cannot imagine the great pain and sorrow you are experiencing during this most difficult time.

When we lose someone that we love so much, we are left with a strong desire to see that person again. It's wonderful to know that the Bible promises we will see our loved ones who have fallen asleep in death. John chapter 5, verses 28 and 29 gives us this wonderful reassurance: "Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." What a marvelous hope!

Once again we wish to express our condolences for your loss. And although we cannot erase the pain and sorrow you are feeling, it is our hope that this can give you a small measure of comfort.
