“ My cousin, Bob will be remembered for his humor and lightening speed of speech. He loved his dogs, and we would share stories of our furry friends. Both of us had very protective pets, and Bob said maybe it was because we both were worriers. Bob was also an impeccable flower gardener. Sadly, Bob suffered a prolonged illness. Bob, rest in peace. Love, Susie (my name in early childhood)

“ I remember the many days Bob & I played baseball in the back yard. It was always competitive....and fun. I bought my first car from Bob.(1960 Chevy Impala.) He used the money to buy a Chevy Corsair.) Bob always loved cars. I remember when he had a blue 88" Oldsmobile. That was one of his favorites....it was very nice. One of Bob's favorite sports was football. Besides the Browns he liked to root for the Dallas Cowboys. Bob will be missed.
