

Ronald J. Kish

August 4, 1936 - November 30, 2011

Ronald J. Kish

Ronald J. Kish, 75, of Euclid, passed away Nov. 30, 2011, at Hospice of the Western Reserve in Cleveland.

Born Aug. 4, 1936, in Cleveland, he had lived in Euclid for the past 30 years. He was a U.S. Marine Corporation veteran.

Mr. Kish retired in 1997, as a machinist from Eaton in Cleveland.

Survivors are his children, Carmen, Ronnie, Tammy and Steve Sandy Kish; grandchildren, Carmine, Joey, Brandi, Tanya and Ashley Kish; siblings, James Kish, Bill Ross, Carol Bottiggi and Josie Ross; and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his loving wife, Thelma Kish Acker.

Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Monday at Monreal Funeral Home, 35400 Curtis Blvd., Eastlake.

Friends may call from 1 to 2 p.m. Monday at the funeral home prior to the service. Burial will be in Lakeview Cemetery in Cleveland.

Tribute Wall

JK

“ my dear beloveded brother!you and I survived a very difficult childhood together.we spent most of our lives away from one anotherand not able to do many things that bro's do.however,we both expressed our love for each frequently!you are in my thoughts and in my heart!!'ll see you on the other side. your older bro.jimmey

jim kish - October 12, 2016 at 12:00 AM