“ Aunt Jeannie, Jamie, Nanette, Vinnie, Rick, Jack and Debi,

Words can not express the sadness that I feel in my heart for the loss of Ron. He was an incredible man that truly touched so many lives in so many ways. He will be remembered forever! I am sure he is visiting Petrof's Cafe in Heaven. Hold the memories of his caring heart close to your heart and believe that tomorrow will bring easier days. I love you all and will continue to keep you in my prayers.

“ Mrs Petrof and Family,

Sorry I was not able to greet you in person last evening. I was unable to enter the room--I know how hard it must be for you and the loss you feel. Ron was very special and will be missed by all of the guys at the service department. HE was so fun loving. His smile will always be remember. Thinking of you at this sad time. Brian Barwidi

“ Dear Aunt Jeanie,

I talked with my mom and dad last evening, they stated Ron has so many friends.

What a remarkable man.

May God strengthen you today.

My heart and prayers are with you, Debi, Jack and Rick

“ To vinnie and the entire family, I don't know any of you other than Vinnie so this may seem a little strange to have a stranger sending you this message. Mandy works for me. Ever since she told me about Ron's illness God had put him and your family on my heart and has continued to do so. I am so sorry, beyond words, for your loss. Please know that your entire family is my prayers and I pray God's peace to you at this time and always. With much love, Sally Zarlinga

“ Dear Aunt Jeanie,
I am at work but, can not stop thinking about the pain you must have deep in your heart.
Please understand that even though 250 mile seperate us, my prayers are with you.
Ron would want you to continue to be the strong woman that you have always been. May God allow family and friends to surround you with their love today!
Love from Susan

“ *Dear Aunt Jean, Debi, Jack and Rick
My heartfelt condolences to your entire family.
You are in my prayers.
If hugs could be sent via email, this guest book would be overflowing!
May God give all of you peace during this sad time.*
