“ Last Thursday, April 10, 2014, I lost a brother who was very dear to me, but most importantly, I lost a special friend. I guess the Good Lord needed him to come "Home" after his long journey here on this earth. Ron, you took me in to live with you and, also, your special wife, my sister-in-law, Nancy, after our mom and dad passed away. What a wondrous gift that was granted to me. I will always love and thank you so very much for that "gift". I will not say goodbye to you, Ron, but I will say, "Ron, I will see you sometime between now and then." You have left your earthly family to be with the Lord, as well as those in our family that have gone before you. I know you will watch over all of us and try to help us along on our earthly journey as we, too, travel the road you traveled 'Home" to be with the Lord. Brother, you will be missed oh so much. I have loved you forever, and you will always have a special place in my heart. So, once again, "I will see you sometime between now and then." All my love to you; all my love to your family as we try to get through the difficult days ahead.

“ As I sit here and remember the most influential man in my life it is hard to think that his person is gone from this earth, his memory and the love I feel will never be gone from my heart. My Uncle Ronnie, my godfather, filled my world with such love I am glad I do not have to have to say goodbye but rather...see you later. I will see you in glory when our Lord says it is time. Until then, I will hear your voice tell me "You got that right kiddo" amongst many other of his favorite sayings. I love you and will miss you dearly. My prayers to Aunt Nancy and the rest of our family as we forge through these difficult days with a smile on our faces because of the wonderful life you led...we will celebrate you daily.
