*“ I regret my schedule made my attendance impossible.
I have many memories of my uncle all the way from when I was a little boy. He was a fine, upstanding person and will be missed by many.
Deepest condolences to the family & friends of my uncle. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Family and friends of Mr. Stackhouse please accept my condolences. You can find comfort in the fond memories of your loved one. The Bible also offers words of comfort during times of bereavement. Isaiah 51:12 states “I-I myself am the One that is comforting you people.” It is comforting to know the Bible speaks of a time when “death will be no more” at Rev 21:3, 4. During your time of bereavement may you find comfort from reading the Bible.
