“ "Dad" Armelli obviously loved kids and made sure to join us when he had a few minutes to coach, play, tease, or provide stern leadership when things started to get a little out of hand. The twinkle in his eyes and hint of a smile often belied the gruffness in his voice as he expertly managed the group of us during the many basketball games in the back or the street ballgames in the front yard. That twinkle was always there, even after we got older and moved away to our own lives and families. He earned the love and respect from all of us. I feel very blessed to have had him in our lives.

“ The Foley Family loved Ross Armelli, Betty and all the Armelli children because they were the epitome of a loving Family who got involved in the community, stood tall in church, volunteered with the young, understood right and wrong, and valued the core of our purpose on earth: to love one another. The love he showed is equaled by the love he received — which was overflowing. He truly was a rich man whom we will always cherish as a good man. Bless him as he is held in God’s loving hands.

“ Ross was a great friend to my parents and to us all. On his visits to Florida with Mary, we always had a wonderful time. Funny & loving and I'm especially grateful to have known him and for how kind he was to my mother, Dorothy.

“ We grew up across the street on Dickerson from the Armelli Family --they were like a second family to us. Mr. Armelli was always with the kids and having fun times. He will always be remembered as a great human being to all and will be missed!!!!

“ *Simply put Ross Armelli was the very best God created.
As a kid, going to Knights of Columbus ball games and picnics it was Mr. Armelli who was my favorite because he always smiled and cared.
As an adult, my impression was confirmed, he was the nicest man ever!
The Foley Family loved Mr. Armelli in every sense of the word.
Ross will always live in my heart with wonderful memories.
The world has lost one of the best.
My thoughts are with the Armelli Family.
