

Rose M. Taylor

December 23, 1910 - September 9, 2000

Services for Rose M. Taylor, 89, of Eastlake, will be 10 a.m. Tuesday at St. Justin Martyr Church, 35781 Stevens Blvd., Eastlake.

Mrs. Taylor died Sept. 9, 2000, at Western Reserve Nursing Home in Kirtland. Born Dec. 23, 1910 in Cleveland, she lived in Euclid before moving to Eastlake ten years ago.

Mrs. Taylor was employed as a registered nurse for 62 years at Huron Road Hospital and Euclid Hospital, retiring in 1985.

Survivors are her husband of 63 years, Vincent R. Taylor Sr.; daughters, Loretta Anthony Tarantino of Eastlake and Alice Gregory Suki of Naples, Fla.; son, Vincent R. Ginny Taylor of Ind.; ten grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

Friends may call 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. Monday at Monreal-Brickman Funeral Home of Eastlake just east of Rt 91. Burial will be in All Souls Cemetery in Chardon Township.

Tribute Wall

PH

“ My dad’s Aunt Rose , sister to his mother , Loretta , who died sometime after giving birth to my Uncle Ken. Her maiden name was Gorris. I met her for the first time that I can remember , when I was getting my tonsils out. She brought me an Easter basket . My dad used to sometimes take my sisters and I to visit her and uncle Vince after Mass at St. Mary Magdalene on Sunday. I worked at Dave’s at Shore Center and a woman (caregiver) came in and shopped several times . I was always called over to ok the check she was using and it belonged to Rose and Vince. I knew the name immediately, but hadn’t seen them for years .I asked the woman to send my regards , but who knows if she did. I wish I knew more about that part of our family now. My younger sister Laura and I have been talking about doing some research . If anyone wants to reach out , we are both on Facebook .

patti Holzheimer - February 24, 2021 at 09:54 PM