“ My deepest sympathy to you Bob, and the children and grandchildren. I know that nothing I can say will make up for the pain and sadness you must be feeling right now. I have loved Rosie for 28 years and the world and AA will be a lonely place without her. I have lost a friend that cannot be replaced and I choose to remember all the wonderful times we had together, the laughter and the tears we shared and to try in some small way to live up to the courage she has always shown me. I am positive she is in good company with Bertie, Bill, her beloved Marshall and our sponsor Eddie. I will miss you my friend.
