“Ruby, you will be in my heart, you were a great friend through High School. I Remember the time we went to the Bobcat restaurant and stopped on the way back at a certain car and took a letter to the school and read it. We didn't get in trouble, that time... Whew, were we scared. Missing you, even if we were far apart after school

“I worked with Ruby in Cols. for about 12 years. She was a wonderful friend, and a good person. In 2006 we had a reunion of insurance workers/employees dinner. It was wonderful getting together and sharing all the changes in our lives. The last time I talked to Rubya month ago we both spoke of trying to get togther again. I called everyone and we all agreed to get together this fall in Ruby's memory. "A ROSE" An old friend is like a full blown rose, each velvet petal a pleasant memory. Its fragrance recalls sweetness that grows with years of love, understanding and sympathy."-Margaret Crawford. My prayers and condolences go to the Bias family. Linda Waidner

“ Aunt BeeBee was one of a kind. She became my aunt by marriage and I always loved when she would come into town. I loved just sitting and talking with her. She loved to shop and buy gifts for her family...those Christmas bags will be fondly remembered. You were one of the most loving and generous people I ever had the pleasure to call family. We will miss your calls and the time we spent with you. May there be a casino in the sky for you to delight in, a dog and cat for you to love and may you smile down upon us from time to time.

“ I have many great memories of Aunt Ruby. My earliest is her dancing with me in her arms as a small child in my parents kitchen. When I was a little girl I would spend several weeks a year with Aunt Ruby, her sister Roberta and their mom-mamaw Bias in Cleveland. I loved watching her and aunt Roberta get ready for work in the mornings\=rolling their hair, ironing their clothers, they looked so important and I loved the way they smelled\=perfume and cigarettes\=Aunt Ruby was alot of fun growing up, always generous with all of her family. She never complained, worked hard and loved all of us. I will miss her and her contagious laugh. Even though I know she is free from her pain, and is in a better place.
