“ My Father in law Salvatore DeSensi , some people in the family called him Frank, Sal, or Uncle Chico, I called him Dad. A little italian man with a huge personality. A man who traveled the world, Moved his family from Italy for a better life here in America. Always quick to entertain the family with his guitar, or sing an Italian melody. He spent many hours in his garden. We enjoyed making wine together every year. He will be greatly missed. I love you dad!

“ *I met Salvatore and Vittoria in 1981. Franca and I went to school together and we lived close to each other. I would walk to their house in the summer. They were always very kind to me . I remember Salvatore would make homemade wine and Vittoria would make homemade pizza. She would tell me Manja Manja you too skinny! I have fond memories of the DeSensi family growing up. “ Even though I never personally met "Chico", I felt I knew and loved him through my beautiful friend Grace. Every day calling him, speaking in Italian, I treasured the way she so lovingly took care of him. I pray for all of the family to find strength and comfort during his passing.
