“ Rich, Karen, Dave, Steven Marc, and family,

We send you our prayers and love. Walking this path is the difficult one of our journey here on earth, as a love one departs from us. And "Sandi-kin" is so easy to love.

*Such a wonderful women of God.
Full of life, love and laghter. We have been so blessed by her time here. She gave so much of herself, ensuring others have the best of all the Lord had to offer...*

Each of you are a product of her and who she is. May God continue in you, what He begain in her and may He give you the stregth to see you through this circle of life. Thank you for sharing "Sandi-kin" with us. She touched us and our life in ways that we can not count.

We not only have grown to love Sandy, we have grown to love 'hers'. If there is anything that we can do, please let us know. We are there for you.
