“ I will never forget all the summers that I spent with her in Canada...her famous french toast...warm smile and sense of humor.

Grandma Shirley was a kind and generous person who always found something positive in every situation.

She will be greatly missed.

“ Shirley was a very special lady and a wonderful neighbor. We will miss seeing her smiling face on the front porch. We could not have been blessed with a better neighbor. It will not be the same without her. Joe, I hope it helps to know that you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers, and we are here when you need us.

“ There are never the right words to express how deeply sad we are that you have to endure your loss. Shirley will be truly missed by everyone who knew her no matter where they crossed her path.

Shirley was a giver, never a taker. She was always there to help no matter how busy she was; and never asking or needing anything in return.

Friends like Shirley are few in life and it is with a heavy heart that we grieve with your loss.

Her friendship meant the world to us, and we couldn't have asked for a more genuine friend than Shirley. Memories of our times together regardless of where we were or what we were doing will be forever held dear to us. May your memories bring you comfort in the days ahead.

Shirley's will live forever in our hearts.

“ I offer my sympathy to the family and friends of Ms. Akers. It seems unfair that death has the power to take away someone we love. The Bible is comforting in this regard. It promises that our loved ones now dead will live again. You can read these words at John 11:20-27. May you continue to rely and find comfort in reading the Bible.

“ Some people in this life you can like them, you can love them, but they are not special. Shirley was one that was always loved and very special to me.

“ My fondest memories are too many to count. Aunt Shirley has been many things to me throughout my lifetime. She has been an encourager, a protector, a teacher of life lessons, a generous giver of anything and everything she ever had. She took me home for the first week of my life and from that moment we have had a bond that time nor distance and now death will never ever break. She has been my rock...a beautiful woman inside and out...an angel sent from God to help lead me through the most impressionable times of my life. My fondest memories?...I must say...would have to be EVERY SINGLE MINUTE I spent with her...the smell of her perfume...the smell and softness of her laundry...the softest quilts that surrounded and comforted me...her morning glorys in Canada...oatmeal and toast with REAL BUTTER every summer morning when I was a kid...her welcoming arms, her patience, her ability to express unconditional love. The sadness I feel runs deep, but I know I will see her again. And when that time comes I will never have to let go again.
