“ Rest in Peace our brother from another Mother. and uncle!

The good times are the memories to cherish. I can remember you and Becky charging down a castle drive way in Scotland, laughing and giggling all the way, Becky sitting on your knee in the chair.

We won't forget you.

“ Steve used Christ as his example and trusted God in all things. He taught everyone who knew him, how to love, laugh and appreciate the good things and to accept the bad things with strength and dignity. A true hero. You and your family will be my friends forever.

“ We will miss Steve, but we will see him some day again dancing before the LORD. Becky, you both have been a blessing in our lives and we love you so much. I wish I could be there to hug you and help scrub the floors or do whatever you need, but we can't. Know we pray for you all and that you can call any time day or night.

“ We'll miss you Mr HappyFellow!

*You can shed tears that he is gone
Or you can smile because he lived.*

*You can close your eyes and pray that he will come back
Or you can open your eyes and see all that he has left.*

*Your heart can be empty because you can't see him
Or you can be full of the love that you shared.*

*You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.*

*You can remember him and only that he is gone
Or you can cherish his memory and let it live on*

*You can cry and close your mind be empty and turn your back
Or you can do what he would want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on.*

The above words were written in 1981 by David Harkins, Cumbria, UK, and were included by the Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II on the order of service for the Queen Mother's funeral on Tuesday 9th April 2002.

“ You were my hero, my strength, my love and my best friend. I will miss you every day, you took a huge part of my heart the day you left for a better place.

I thank God for the honor of holding you in my arms while he took you home. You were my last hospice patient.

My life will be dedicated to our beautiful children, I will spend a lifetime fulfilling our dreams of raising our sons to be fine men of honor and integrity just like their daddy. I will love you forever my chubby hubby.

Until we meet again my sweet man.
