“ I am so very sorry. Although it has been a lifetime ago (60s) and you were so young I will never forget you banging - you can tell I did not appreciate drums back then - on your drums to a song “Bits and Pieces” at least 100 times. That was the day I learned how loud drums really were. I am so glad you followed your passion and ignored grown ups like me.

“ My sincerest condolences to the family . I always enjoyed seeing Sterling, he was always a good guy, one who was nice to everyone and I never saw him disrespect or be rude to anyone. He made me laugh when we first met as kids in high school and many times after as well. I watched him a few times beat those drums and in my opinion he was a great drummer. I saw him last at one of our boxing shows with his father , he loved his father for sure you could tell. I am grateful I knew him and wish his loved ones the best at this difficult time.

“ Just wanted to say how sorry I was when I heard about this. He was a sweetheart. I loved dancing with Veronica at the Bistro 185 when I worked there. We shared a lot of laughs. He was an amazing musician. And a good friend to many. Sending hugs and prayers to all who loved him. You will be missed Sterling. Another great one gone. Xoxo

It is with great sadness in my heart that I pass my condolences on to the George Wilson family and Stirling's true love Veronica. Knowing STIRLING(not sterling silver-he admonished me for that) for 50 years I could write a book about what he meant to me and Cebar's. Played hockey against him in the Euclid Rec League. Doorman, bartender, and ever present musician, and patron of Cebar's for many years. Wrestled him at my bachelor party 35 years ago. Not sure why we wrestled. He beat me. Ling made up a T-shirt advertising Cebar's back in 1979 at his expense(along with K.A.). Called me Toe and cheap Slovenian many times(it's true). Miss you Scottsman. Will never forget you and the many great memories. Love you, Ling-Ling, and I told you so the last time at nursing home. May God bless us all til we meet again. Ling, you were Slovenian at heart. Zivijo!
