“ I have known Sue since I was a baby. She has always been a part of the family for over 50 years. I have always thought of her as another member of the family. She was always generous with the animals and with Mar fan. She put Michael ALWAYS before herself. She was strong and giving. She was a great friend and she will be missed. I hope that Michael and his family know how much she was loved and I hope they find peace knowing she isnt suffering anymore.

“ Sue and I met back in the "Gene Carroll" days where we performed on the Sunday TV show. We then joined together as "Shayne and Ray" to travel around the country entertaining. Sue "Ray" was a talented vocalist and comedian. She kept her sense of humor throughout her life.

After 65 years of friendship, there will be a huge void in my life. I will think of her every time I see a "ray" of sunshine breaking through the clouds. I am grateful we were friends, Carol Howen
