“ I first met Suzanne and Bob when their sons played in the CBA World Series and I liked them from the start. Such a perfect couple and they were always so very nice to me. Suzanne had a great sense of humor and she loved and was so proud of her family. It's sad she's gone but she's in pain no me. Her sons did a great job caring for her. She will be missed but rest assured she loved her family and she is with Bob once again. RIP, Suzanne. You did good.
