“ Sharon, Carol and Tom,
You have our deepest sympathies. It was a pleasure to spend time and share a couple of Easters with your dad and your families at his home. Ted had a kind and loving heart that has been passed down to each of you. He will truly be missed, but never far away from many great memories. Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time.
Take care, Dale and Jim

“ Dear Sharon, Carol, Tom and families,
I am so sorry to hear of Ted's death. He always made me feel at home and like I was part of the family. His welcoming smile and friendly disposition will be greatly missed. I will remember him fondly as a proud father with a kind and generous heart.
My love and concern are with you during this difficult time.
