

Terrence Kalain

April 12, 1957 - May 22, 2026

Terrence "Terry" Kalain, age 69, of Willoughby Hills, passed away peacefully on May 22, 2026. He was born on April 12, 1957, to the late Charles and Jean Kalain (nee Miller).

A man of many talents and passions, Terry dedicated 25 years to Swagelok, where he worked in the Metallurgical Lab and proudly held several U.S. patents. Beyond his professional achievements, Terry was a gifted musician who shared his love of music playing in local bands for many years. In his younger days, his need for speed and love for vintage cars took him to the tracks, where he raced in Thompson.

Terry is survived by his beloved wife of 16 years, Sue Kalain (nee Wydo); his daughter, Teri Kalain Charlton; his brother, Dale Kalain; and a close-knit circle of dear friends.

In accordance with Terry's wishes, no services will be held.

Donations in his honor can be made to Reserve Care Hospice, <https://reserve-care.org/give>.
