“ I can't believe it has been 10 years since you left us. It still feels like yesterday you, Nick and I were running around Grandmas and Grandpas throwing around the football in the backyard. So many fond memories of you as we grew up. It still hits home knowing your not around to talk to, share funny moments with and just have a talk. You may be gone, but your certainly not forgotten. I know there are times you look over me. Know everyone has not forgotten about you and you are missed dearly. May you be at peace in paradise along with grandpa. I'll be thinking about you. R.I.P. my cuz!

“ Tim, terrorized me in middle school, but that day taught me one of the most important lessons I could have learned even though it seemed mean and relentless on that day. I looked him up today on chance alone and found this page.

I forgive you, Tim, and thank you for the lesson. Journey well into the afterlife.
