“ We always said we would start a YouTube page called “bad grama”. You were the funniest person in this entire world and made me laugh until my head literally hurt. I’ll never forget our car rides to your doctor appointments and how much me you and Josh would be laughing the whole way there and back. I’ll never forget when we were younger how you would freak out if anyone put their dirty hands in your lunch meat, or you saying “get in or get out I’m not heating the city.” Every day i swear someone new was living with us because you’re heart was just too big to turn someone in need down. When Bobby died you and i talked in the car and talked about all the crazy, i remember you said, “it can’t be all bad can it, at least we can be ourself with each other.” And that inspired me for the speech i gave at Bobby’s service. It made me feel so deeply in my core the love i have for my family. There’s a part in the song “see you again” by Wiz where they say, “why not talk about family when families all that we got.” And everytime i hear it i think back to that convo. Through all the crazy all the hard all the good and the bad we all have always had each others back, we went to bat with each other sometimes but even harder FOR each other. I come from the best family and have taken so many good qualities from you. Because of you I am understanding, patient, forgiving, generous, determined, not scared to say what’s on my mind, and so much more! You held our family up and without you things wouldn’t have been the same. I wish i could have had more time with you and losing you Bobby and Kayla all within this short amount of time has been so hard on me. If heaven is real i sure hope you guys are together waiting for me. I love my family so much and i hope you knew how great of an impression you left on so many people. You are a legend “bad grandma” and will never be forgotten. Make some hell in heaven you crazy ass MF!
