“Walt was a truly important part of the Lakeland Civic Band for many, many years. I know that, when the group reconvenes, his absence will be deeply felt. My sincerest condolences go to Judy and his family.

“Walter and I would occasionally walk together from parking to the auditorium for rehearsal, and Walter and I would often talk during set-up for concerts. Walter always had a warm greeting for me and something cheerful to say. He will be remembered.

“I played tuba with Walter in the Lakeland Civic Band for 10 years. I sat beside him every Thursday night in the tuba section. I always enjoyed playing music and talking with Walter. He did so much for the Lakeland Civic Band - he recorded every single concert for nearly 40 years! I treasure the CDs that Walter made. Walter was admired, respected, and appreciated by every member of the band.

I enjoyed getting to know Walter through the band. Walter loved movies and he loved film music. He shared with me many videos over the years, and he brought music from some of his favorite movies for the band to play.

My heart and prayers go out to Walter and his family. He will be dearly missed by many.

“ I am so saddened to hear of Walter’s passing. Over the years, I so enjoyed talking with him and seeing that smile when at Lakeland Civic Band. He did so much for the band too with the recordings as well as being a dependable player. If band members didn’t really know Walter, they sure knew him as the guy with that tiny ‘traveling tuba’. He sure was a breath of fresh air.
All my thoughts and prayers are with Judy and his family.

I was only in the band for one year. 5 seasons. I treasure the CDs I purchased from Walter. Glad to hear he had Jesus as Savior.

“ I first met Walt when I performed with the Shaker Heights Community Band and later when we performed with the Pepper Pike Community Band. We had many fascinating conversations over the years. He was a kind and caring person who had the unique ability to make others feel good. We shared (as most tuba players do) many mutual friends. Walt will be missed.
