

Wayne Segulin

September 3, 1951 - July 7, 2023

Wayne Segulin peacefully passed away on July 7, 2023, at the age of 72, surrounded by his loving family.

Born on September 3, 1951, in Cleveland, Ohio, Wayne was the son of the late Clarence Segulin and Stephanie Segulin (nee Koncilja).

Wayne found his calling in the food and beverage industry, spending many fulfilling years as the bar manager at Mr. Pete's Sports Bar in Mentor. He was known by customers and staff alike for his warm personality, exceptional service, and unwavering commitment to making everyone feel welcome. Wayne's genuine kindness and willingness to lend a helping hand endeared him to all those who knew him.

Outside of work, Wayne found joy and relaxation in various activities. He had a penchant for bowling and was often found engaging in friendly competitions. Playing cards, particularly pinochle, brought him great pleasure, and he was always up for a game with family and friends. Wayne's interests extended to board games, numismatics, and occasional visits to the local casino. Music and television were sources of comfort and entertainment for him, allowing him moments of peaceful reflection and relaxation.

Wayne will be deeply missed by his surviving family, including his sisters,

Stephanie Dagg and Tina Collins. He was a loving and cherished uncle to his nieces and nephews including his great-great nephews Devon and Theo. Wayne was preceded in death by his brother Michael Segulin and sister Clarice Hixenbaugh.

Wayne Segulin will be remembered as a genuine and caring soul, a loyal friend, and a dedicated bar manager. May he rest in eternal peace, forever treasured in our hearts and memories.
