

William Joseph Gardner III

November 17, 1981 - September 18, 2007

Through Billy's love and caring as an organ donor, five lives were saved. He was currently living and working in Columbus, Ohio. He and his fiancée, Renee Krocek of Medina, were looking forward to the day they could begin their lives together. Billy leaves a loving family behind.

He is survived by his mother, Lori Nero Gardner of Mentor; father, William Gardner, Jr. of Mentor; sisters, Shaina Gardner and Breanna Strauss; brother, Jordan Gardner; maternal grandparents, Deborah and Carl Farona of Mentor; paternal grandparents, Barbara and William Gardner, Sr. of Arizona; maternal great-grandmother, Avonelle Box of California; four aunts, four uncles and thirteen cousins.

He was predeceased by his maternal grandfather, Richard Nero.

Donations may be sent to the family in care of the funeral home.

“ Not a day goes by that I don't think about you and the Love we shared with one another. . .No one can touch my heart the way you did. So many challenges and heartbreak... but yet..Love conquers all. I can't wait until we are together again. You are forever a part of me.. forever in my heart ❤️. Forever and Always.. I Love You!!
