“ Zach was a beautiful person that felt everything in life so passionately....the good and the bad. When something tragic like this happens everyone wants an explanation and when it doesnt come people start looking for someone or something to blame. Before i start pointing my finger i need to ask myself where i fell short,what i missed. 10yrs later it still breaks my heart and i'll always miss him and wonder what could've been made of his life. He was too kind,too gentle,and to sensitive for this cold world and despite certain views i believe he is now with god and no one can hurt him ever again. I love you little bro.....your not forgotten

“ Zach. You don't know me but I went to ridge junior high with you. I really wish I could've gotten to know you sooner if I wasn't so shy.I remember your humor at the gym and it always cracked me up.I am sooo sorry for the pain you have been through. You never deserved any of this pain and it saddens me.I will always keep you in my prayers even though I don't know you. RIP.

“ I lived two houses down from Zach for a long time and visited him alot this summer. I loved him. He came to see me in the school play. And talked to me for hours on the phone. He was the first person I saw when I came home this summer. He held me together for a really long time. In fact, we went to homeschool together for half a year and Zach was the type of person who wouldn't stop until he knew you were okay. He would go to the limit to make sure that everyone was feeling okay. I really miss him and give condolences to his family. We all miss him. I pray everynight for everyone he ever touched, because there will never be another one like him, as long as we are here.

Xoxo,
Lindsay

My tears fall with him.

“ Zach was a very close friend of mine, literally because he lived so close. On occasion he would come over and play pool table and just have a fun time. I will always remember Zach and I think of him and pray for him every night before I go to bed.

“ me and Zach were really close friends... I love him with all my heart and soul, he will be rememberd forever. He had the most amazing blue eyes I have ever seen, and he was the most gorgeus guy I have ever seen... I will remember all the good times, like when he would chase me around the house to tickle me, all the back massages, and all the love he shared with me.. I will honor and love him forever, for all the things he has done for me. He helped me through bad times,and was with me through most of the good times. His smile and his eyes are what helped the most, and his loveing heart... He was a good and beautiful person inside and out... He will be loved forever... And I hope that he knows this.... I love you Zachariah...

~Love forever,

“ I am very upset and sorry about the loss of one very dear and close friend,Zach Tenerove. Zach had been one of the best things that has ever happened to me. I met him at Memorial Junior High this year. My best friend had introduced us and after that we were friends. Zach was the one who gave me really good advice on how to look at life and enjoy the time I have now instead of worrying about what is going to happen later in life. When he found out about me moving to Florida he said he was going to keep me under his bed. He always made me feel good about my self. I love him very much and I always will. He was the best "big brother" a girl could have. Again I'm deeply sorry for the loss of someone special and sweet. He and the family is in all my prayers.God bless

“ We are so saddened by the loss of Zach and send our heartfelt condolences to the family. Zach attended Buckeye School and LaMuth with Joey. We'll always remember his zest for life and those gorgeous blue eyes of his that could swallow you up and mesmerize you at a glance!! I used to work in the library at Buckeye and can remember how sweet and inquisitive he was. He had so much energy that I wish he could have bottled up some for me. In 3rd or 4th grade, I have a picture of Zach & Joey square dancing there weren't enough girls, so they were partners. They snarled about it but accepted it graciously. How special that was!!

I can't even imagine the pain you're suffering. Please know that you have many who share in it and pray that you'll find peace & the support of your family & friends to help you through this difficult time.

We'll never forget that gorgeous little boy who grew to be a gorgeous young man, but whose life was cut way too short.

God Bless. You are all in our deepest thoughts & prayers!!
